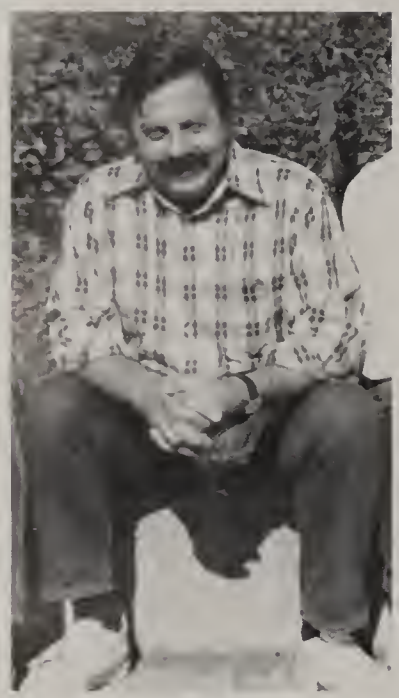
Opportunity Is Waiting For You



We, the class of 1991, dedicate our yearbook to a very special man, a man who has shown us how to be strong and who has brought us closer to an understanding of not just what he teaches, but what he believes. Not only do we, the class of 1991, stand behind him all the way, we also care and respect him deeply.

This yearbook is also dedicated to his beautiful daughter, Kyra. Long will the memory of both be in our hearts.

KATARINA JONSBERG

KATARINA JONSBERG

"Kat, Kit Kat, Kattis, Katt Snatt"

LIKES/LOVES: My family and host family, Being an exchange student at this beautiful island, Playing sports — Center forward in soccer, Dancing and acting in Gnistorna — My dance group, Watching good movies and listening to music, Going out w/good friends, Children, My seldom clean room, Going shopping, Traveling to other countries, Winters w/a lot of snow and skiing, Summers w/a lot of sun and bathing, Chocolate, Horseback riding, Sleeping, Talking on the phone w/friends, Christmas, Animals.

DISLIKES: Spiders, War, Unnecessary experiments on animals, False friends, Dishonesty.

MEMORIES: The mustard glass A-K, Al, Looking w/AK in binoculars behind bushes, The nicknames EN & I made up, Dancing w/Chili Con Carne, Sleeping overnights at SO's w/SO&MS, Black velvet, The Teneriffetrip, Komigen SC, Make it Harligt!, Rainy board games night w/MC, JC, Going in the wrong car, Come to Daddy HH!, Whipped cream and water fights w/MC, Cyrano w/VC, KH, LS.

THANKS: To my host family who made my year in US possible, To Monica — and our phone calls, To the soccer team who helped me in the beginning w/the school and a lot of fun — especially SC, LS, HE, To JT for having patience w/me in the beginning and for showing me around, To Anja&JP for a lot of fun, To all my friends in Sweden and their support letters and to my family.

"Home is where you hang your hat" — Have I heard a lot of people say and I think it makes sense. Starting a new life with a new family in another country for a year has meant a lot of trouble but also a lot of fun and I have never regretted it.

"We never had it all together, but together we had it all."

We helped one another to rise above,
And we're there if one should fall.
Our friendships went beyond simple words,
Or smiles when we passed by.
Our friendships made us who we are,
And gave us more reason to cry.
Our years together shall not be forgotten,
No matter where we go.
Our time [illegible] were spent in full,
And [illegible] now.
Even though we must go our separate ways
And [illegible] a brand new start,
We will always have a place for one another,
[illegible] inside of our hearts.
